Ecclesiastes 3:1, "There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens." NIV.

Summer is a season that seems to invite us to slow down, breathe deeply, and notice the beauty around us. The long days, golden sunsets, and gentle breezes are reminders of God's abundant goodness. Just as the sun nourishes the earth, helping flowers bloom and crops grow, the light of Christ nourishes our souls, helping our faith to flourish.

In Scripture, light is often a symbol of God's presence and guidance. Psalm 27:1 tells us, "The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear?" This verse is a beautiful reminder that no matter where we go this summer—whether it's a family vacation, a quiet retreat, or simply a walk through our neighborhood—God's light goes before us, guiding our steps and calming our hearts.

Summer also offers us unique opportunities to live out our faith in tangible ways. A backyard barbecue can become a place of fellowship and encouragement. A trip to the park can turn into a moment of prayer for the people and community around us. Even the simple act of greeting a neighbor with kindness can reflect the love of Christ.

For families, summer can be a time to plant seeds of faith in the hearts of children—reading Bible stories together under the shade of a tree, singing worship songs during a road trip, or serving together at a local outreach event. For those who live alone, it can be a season to connect more deeply with God through personal devotion, journaling, or joining a small group Bible study

Let's also remember that summer's beauty is a gift meant to be shared. As we enjoy the warmth of the sun, let's be intentional about bringing warmth to others - offering encouragement to someone who is struggling, visiting those who may feel lonely, or volunteering our time to help those in need.

This summer, may we not only soak in the sunshine but also soak in the presence of God. May we be like sunflowers, turning our faces toward His light each day, and may that light shine through us so that others can see His goodness.

Wishing you a joyful, faith-filled summer filled with peace, purpose, and the radiant light of Christ. ~Pastor Becky

Prayer for summer: O Maker of light, let the sun's gold dance in my heart. Bless the fields, the rivers, the wind, and the laughter that sparkles in warm air. Teach me to walk joyfully, to taste the sweetness of unhurried days, and to carry summer's bright song into every place I go. Amen.

Guatemala Mission Trip

Carley & Addy Armagost and Monty Kunes will be traveling to Guatemala in July on a mission trip. Please keep them in prayer.
